Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The town of Broadland, South Dakota, is a small, tight-knit community, and one of its strongest unifying forces throughout the last one hundred years has been the Broadland United Methodist Church; and,

WHEREAS, In the early days of Broadland, the people were anxious to establish a church home. As early as 1882, they were holding Sunday School in the railroad depot; and,

WHEREAS, When the school house was built in 1884, official church services began being held under the direction of the Reverend Akers, who would ride into town on horseback; and,

WHEREAS, On June 26, 1904, the people of Broadland took pride in holding a dedication for their debt-free church building, constructed at a cost of $1955. Leading the first service in the new facility was the Reverend O. A. Phillips; and,

WHEREAS, This summer, the congregation of Broadland United Methodist Church will be celebrating their church's centennial with an old-fashioned tent meeting. In attendance, as well as the congregation and the Reverend Thomas Peacock, will be several pastors from the past to reflect upon those earlier days; and,

WHEREAS, For the good works Broadland United Methodist Church has done in its community and for the good will it brings to the state, it is fitting and proper that we recognize this fine church as it celebrates a sacred century of service in South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 4 and 5, 1983, as

BROADLAND UNITED METHODIST CHURCH DAYS

In South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, In Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fifth Day of April, In the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Three
